THAT SAYS IT ALL

(Verse)

I don't know just how I'm gonna tell it
Tell the world just how I feel today
For I would need the language of the angels
To say the things I'd really like to say
Even then this human tongue would falter
For eloquence somehow just isn't mine
I only want to say how it makes me feel today
To know that I am his and He is mine.

(Chorus)

Jesus loves me and I guess that says it all
It says enough to satisfy my soul
Jesus loves me and I will not ask for more
I know he cares for me and that says it all.

(Verse)

I like to tell about the prayers He's answered
Tell about my blessings one by one
Of how I live because He lives inside me
How even now my life has just begun
If I had a thousand years to tell it
I still could not begin to really say
How much it means to know
That the One who loves me so
Is Lord of Lords and king of kings today

(Chorus)

Jesus Loves me and I guess that says it all
It says enough to satisfy my soul
Jesus loves me and I will not ask for more
I know he cares for me and that says it all.

Repeat Chorus

BROKEN TREASURES

Early on Saturday morning
With anticipation she goes
To search for that special something
She knew the market would hold
It might be an antique dresser
A desk or an old broken toy
To others it was useless
But she would restore it with joy

She sees beyond what the eye can see
Seeing all she can make it to be
Taking the broken and used
Making it just like new
With patience beyond measure
She takes joy in restoring broken treasures

When we feel worn out and useless
To the father we can go
He gives glorious healing
And restores the hurting soul
His love sees more within us
Than our minds would dare to conceive
And when his work is finished
We'll be more than we ever dreamed

He sees beyond what the eye can see
Seeing all He can make us to be
Taking the broken and used
Making us clean and new
With love beyond measure
He takes joy in restoring broken treasures

I WOULD

Two little boys were staring at the candy on display
One whispered to the other with the clerk lookin' away
"Just put it in your pocket, no one will ever know.
We'll eat it all before we get back home"

Well that little boy just stared down at the candy on the shelf
You could almost hear the conversation he had with himself
Then he gave the clerk a dollar, took the candy and his change
Gave half to his buddy and explained

No matter who's watching, no matter who sees
Jesus in my heart knows how wrong that would be
When I'm home and momma asks me "Have you been good?"
Though she would never know, I would.

Well little boys, they grow up and temptations grow up too
We're living in a world that says do what you wanna do
What they don't know wont hurt 'em is the devil's battle cry
But a godly man knows that is just a lie

No matter who's watchin' no matter who sees
Jesus in my heart knows how wrong that would be
When the Holy Spirit asks me have you been good?
Though the world would never know, I would.

The man that I am when no one is watchin'
Is the man I really am

No matter who's watchin', no matter who sees
Jesus in my heart knows how wrong that would be
When the Holy Spirit asks me have you been good?
Though the world would never know
No, the world might not ever know, I would Me and Jesus would.

HEAVEN

My heart grows fonder
As I sit and ponder
The glories that wait for me
There's joy in knowing
To heaven I'm going
To live for eternity

Heaven, Heaven
One day I'll finally see
Heaven, Heaven
That's where I long to be.

Loved ones are waiting
I'm anticipating
To see them once again
There'll be no more dying
And no more crying
When we reach Heaven's land.

Heaven, Heaven
One day I'll finally see
Heaven, Heaven
That's where I long to be.

FILL MY CUP, LORD

(CHORUS)

Fill My Cup Lord, I lift it up Lord
Come and quench this thirsting of my soul
Bread of Heaven, feed me til I want no more
Fill my cup, fill it up and make me whole

(VERSE)

There are millions in this world who are craving
The pleasures earthly things afford
But none can match this wondrous treasure
That I find in Jesus my Lord

(CHORUS)

Fill My Cup, Lord, I lift it up, Lord
Come and quench this thirsting of my soul
Bread of Heaven, feed me til I want no more
Fill my cup, fill it up and make me whole.
(Repeat Chorus)

I WILL LIFT MY EYES

I will lift my eyes
Unto the mountains
There flows the fountain
Whence comes my help
I will raise my hands
To God Almighty, on high
I can no longer endure
This valley by myself

I will raise my voice
Up to Heaven
And my Heavenly Father
Will hear my cry
He will reach down
And lift me upward
And then He will tenderly
Dry each teardrop from my eye

Tho I've tried so hard
To look upward
Sometimes my head bows low
And it seems my prayers
Stay in my lonely room
With no place else to go

I will lift my eyes
Unto the mountains
There flows the fountain
Whence comes my help
I will raise my hands
To God Almighty, on high
I can no longer endure
This valley by myself

I can't make it by myself.

I'D CHOOSE YOU AGAIN

(VERSE)

Lookin' in my life
Through the eyes of a young man
Growin' older all the time
Maybe just a little wiser
I can clearly see
All my mistakes
Keep comin' back to visit me
Pointing out the road not taken
So much I'd like to change
But one thing I'd do the same

(CHORUS)

I'd choose you again
I'd choose you again
If God gave me the chance
To do it all again
I'd carefully consider
Every choice and then
Out of all the girls in the world
I'd choose you again.

(VERSE)

Times weren't always good
Seems like the Lord gave
All the easy parts away
But every time the road got rocky
You'd look at me say
Have all you needed
long as I was there with you
You're the reason I kept goin'
If I could start my life anew
The first thing I would do

(CHORUS)

(Repeat CHORUS)

TO MY MANSION IN THE SKY

(VERSE)

This plane I'm ridin'
They say it's leavin'
For a place where
We'll never die
And the pilot
Will be my Jesus
To my mansion
Up in the sky

(CHORUS)

Now don't be grievin'
Cause I'm leavin'
And don't cry when
I say goodbye
There'll be no grievin'
To where I'm goin'
To my mansion up in the sky

(VERSE)

This plane I'm ridin'
Will be returnin'
Some sweet day,
Lord, by and by Better get ready to go with Jesus
To my mansion up in the sky.

(CHORUS)

(VERSE)

My journey with Jesus
Will end my sorrows
Heal my afflictions
No More I'll cry
I'll be rejoicin'
While I'm goin'
To my mansion in the sky

(CHORUS)

(Repeat CHORUS)

To my mansion up in the sky.

HELP ME

Lord, help me walk another mile,
Just one more mile
I'm tired of walkin' all alone
Lord, help me smile another smile
Just one more smile
You know I just can't make it on my own

I never thought I needed help before
I thought that I could do things by myself
But now I know I just can't take it anymore
With a humble heart on bended knee
I'm beggin' You, please, for help.

Come down from your golden throne to me, to lowly me
I need to feel the touch of Your tender hand
Remove the chains of darkness
Help me see, Lord, help me see
Just where I fit into Your master plan

I never thought I needed help before
I thought that I could do things by myself
But now I know I just can't take it anymore
With a humble heart on bended knee
I'm beggin' You, please, for help

Lord with a humble heart on bended knee
I'm beggin' You please for help.

STEPS

Steps beginning in a manger
Down in Bethlehem
And winding the way into a hopeless sinner's soul
Steps imprinted in the sandy shores of Galilee
Tell a story of love that never will grow old

For these weren't the steps of an ordinary man
He had all the power of heaven and earth at His command
And He could have chosen the bitter cup to pass
And if He had, I fear my brother,
We'd all be lost at last

Steps beginning in the lonely hills of Judah
All the way up to the hill of sin and shame
Steps that beckon to the world to come and follow after
And because of those steps the world will never be the same

Because of the steps of Jesus.
