

BUDDY MULLINS

Buddy Mullins is best known as an outstanding vocal artist and was inducted into the Gospel Music Association's Hall of Fame for his time singing with the Grammy and Dove Award winning Gaither Vocal Band. He has travelled and sung his entire life with many gospel music greats such as Bill and Gloria Gaither, Clay Crosse, New Song, DC Talk,

Newsboys, Steven Curtis Chapman, and Amy Grant, as well as performing on well known youth author and speaker, Josh McDowell's "Right from Wrong" tour and the Billy Graham Crusade. He is also a songwriter and musician and has had several number one songs on the charts such as "It's Still the Cross" and "God is Believable."

His passion now is world missions and he is the CEO for Hope for the World Foundation, which is a 501(c3) missions organization that is sharing God's love for people by providing for their basic needs in order to share the love of Christ. He and his wife, Kerri, travel around the U.S. singing and sharing the passion and mission of Hope for the World Foundation.
